City of Panama City Ordinances on Yard/Garage Sales

Section 7-366 - Permit required in residential zones

(a) It shall be unlawful for an owner, resident, tenant or occupant of premises zoned "residential" to conduct junk, rummage, garage or yard sales upon or from such premises without a permit from the city.

(b) A permit for such yard or garage sale may be obtained from the city clerk-treasurer upon the filing of an application not later than ten days before the sale, stating the name and address of the applicant conducting the sale, the location of the premises from which the sale is to be conducted, and the applicant's interest in the premises, as well as the date of sale.

Section 7-367 - Frequency of sales

"No more than three (3) junk, rummage, garage, or yard sales will be permitted upon any location or parcel or property containing such locations by any applicant or their relatives by blood or marriage living in their household, within twelve (12) consecutive calendar months. It is the intent of this article to permit three (3) sales in any twelve (12) successive calendar months by a household or location."

Section 7-368 - Duration of sales

No yard or garage sale shall exist or continue, as defined and permitted by this article, for a period exceeding seven successive and consecutive days from the commencement date as set forth in the permit authorizing the sale upon premises zoned "residential."
